

KING ALFRED SCHOOL

Hampstead

Independent, co-educational day school
Pupils 4 -18 years, staff/pupil ratio 1:8
Informal atmosphere.

Learning Support Assistant – Term Time, Part Time (four days per week)

The King Alfred School is looking for a talented and compassionate Learning Support Assistant to provide academic and pastoral support to a 10-year-old child.

The ideal candidate will be sensitive, empathetic, and have experience working with children.

Working with Lower School Teachers and the Lower School SENCO, the key duties of this role will include:

- Attend classes with the student and support him by encouraging focus
- Do catch up work with the student to ensure that they are up to speed with his work in all subjects
- Communicate promptly and sensitively with parents, both formally and informally
- Pro-actively help to build and then monitor the student's emotional security and liaise with school pastoral staff and parents when necessary

Please see the attached job info pack for a detailed description of the duties involved in this role, as well as a person specification of our ideal candidate.

If you share our vision and are a reflective, hard-working, and forward-thinking professional, we would very much like to hear from you.

Closing date for applications: Friday 24th May at 12pm
Interviews to be held: Tuesday 4th June 2019

To apply for this role please send your completed application to recruitment@kingalfred.org.uk.
