

Geography Graduate (Trainee Teacher)

Commencing September 2022, this opportunity is perfect for any Geography graduate interested in exploring a career in teaching. The role requires no prior experience within an educational setting or working with children and successful candidates will be trained and supported by expert members of staff within and outside of the Geography Department. A sponsored PGCE is available to successful applicants.

This is an exciting opportunity to join a popular and successful Geography Department within an award-winning London independent school. The Department is highly experienced, forward thinking, and open to new ideas; we collaborate well and look forward to supporting new team members who share our approach to innovation and team working.

The Package

- Competitive graduate salary with significant London weighting
- Sponsored PGCE qualification (if desired)
- Subsidised accommodation (if desired)
- Opportunity to train to teach in an award-winning top 50 independent school in London
- Private Health Care Insurance (50% paid by employer) with reduced health club membership
- Health care cash plan
- Free lunch and beverages during term time
- Salary sacrifice schemes

To apply, please email a CV and covering letter, addressed to the Headmaster, to hr@stdunstans.org.uk by 30 June 2022. As part of our safeguarding procedure, any candidate invited to interview will also be required to complete an application form at a later date.

If you have any questions regarding the post, please either contact HR on the email address above or Ms E Partridge (Head of Geography) at epartridge@stdunstans.org.uk
