Aspiring Lead Practitioner

There is the potential to be considered for this multi-faceted opportunity whereby you will take an agreed lead on aspects of learning and teaching, transition work with the support of the faculty leader of learning. You will have plenty of scope to work on projects beyond the school as part of Castle Phoenix Trust and potential to teach A-level maths.

As part of this opportunity we would offer the following package:

- A two year training bursary to hone your teaching skills within our school
- This scholarship is to enable you to:
 - observe outstanding practice in a range of settings
 - prepare inspirational resources
 - lead on aspects of intervention
 - share good practice
 - develop a 'leadership of learning' challenge.
- £1,000 'golden ticket' for training and development
- An opportunity to progress to be accredited as a lead learning practitioner.
- The successful completion of the Aspiring Lead Learning Practitioner programme and being accredited as a lead learning practitioner will enable accelerated pay progression.
