INTRODUCTION TO WELLINGTON COLLEGE

Located on a stunning 400-acre parkland campus in rural Berkshire, Wellington College is one of the world's foremost co-educational boarding and day schools.

Wellington College aims to provide a truly transformative educational experience, ensuring its pupils develop a unique identity inspired by intellectual curiosity, true independence, a generous and far-reaching inclusivity and the courage to be properly and unselfishly individual.

While Wellington continues to build upon fine traditions which date back over 150 years, it remains determined to adapt its values and practices for the 21st century in a dynamic and sustainable way. Wellington is a Christian foundation, which celebrates and respects children from all religious faiths and backgrounds. A commitment to leadership, service and an international outlook lies at the core of Wellington College, which has at its heart the values, chosen by the whole community, of Kindness, Courage, Respect, Integrity and Responsibility.

WELLINGTON'S AIMS

Wellington's educational philosophy is focused around the traits which the College wishes all Wellingtonians to acquire before taking their place in the adult world.

Wellington wishes its pupils:

To be inspired

To be inspired by everything they do at Wellington, both inside and outside of the classroom, so they leave school as interested and interesting people.

To be intellectual

To adopt a genuinely intellectual approach to their academic work and to their view of the world around them, in the knowledge that a Wellington education is only the beginning of an exciting and life-long journey of learning.

To be independent

To develop skills of true independence, as those who can think, learn and cope independently will be the leaders and game-changers of the future.

To be individual

To be valued and developed as an individual, so their Wellington experience is much more than just going to school – rather, it is the journey to self.

To be inclusive

To be inclusive in all dealings with other people, so they leave the College not in a bubble of privilege and elitism, but with the ability to engage with their local, national and international communities, and with a burning desire to do good in the world.
