School Information

Murrumbidgee Regional High School - Wade, is a secondary school situated in Griffith with an enrolment of 470 students including 85 students with an Aboriginal Heritage and 103 students with a non-English speaking background. The new secondary educational structure for the former Murrumbidgee Regional High School includes 2 independent schools supported by a Senior Cross School Coordinator who will ensure the provision of the legacy benefits arising from the previously merged school. The school will share linkages with Murrumbidgee High School - Griffith, including senior curriculum and an Aboriginal Learning and Engagement Centre. As part of this restructure, the school is developing school procedures to support student learning including role statements and wellbeing systems to support the aspirations of the new learning environments. Murrumbidgee Regional High School - Wade includes a support unit with 4 classes supported by a deputy principal instructional leader and a Clontarf Academy to support the educational provision of Aboriginal boys. The school seeks to achieve future high academic performance, supported through strong curriculum and vocational pathways. Murrumbidgee Regional High School - Wade, has recently benefited from significant infrastructure upgrades including a new library, canteen and soon to be constructed multipurpose facility. Positioned at the heart of the Murrumbidgee Irrigation Area, Griffith stands as a sizable regional city. This location ensures residents access to a diverse array of industries, cultural establishments and local sports teams that are deeply integrated into the community fabric. The city's assets include its own airport, hospital, specialised facilities, a wide spectrum of retail establishments and some of Australia's foremost wineries. The collective offerings of Griffith, along with its status as a hub for various attractions, making it an enticing lifestyle destination.
