

TEACHER OF HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE

We are seeking to appoint a well-qualified, committed and an inspirational Teacher of Health and Social Care to teach a range of Health and Social Care courses up to A-levels at our outstanding College. The successful candidate will have an appropriate teaching qualification and be qualified to degree level.

Within this role, you would play a vital role in the College, which was graded as 'outstanding' in all categories by Ofsted in 2017. We excel in providing a broad, inclusive and high quality education to all of our learners, which has resulted in some of the highest levels of progression to Higher Education in the sector. In 2019, Joseph Chamberlain College achieved A level pass rates of 99.4%, which were the best results in the history of the College.

We were featured in the 2015 Parliamentary Review for best practice in further education and were awarded the CPD Mark last year for our comprehensive package of innovative and high impact professional development. We have also been shortlisted for both the 2017 and 2019 TES Sixth Form College of the Year Awards.

Our College is situated within easy reach of Birmingham City Centre, in a state of the art building with superbly equipped classrooms and outstanding facilities.

If you are aspirational for all young people and want to play a part in shaping their futures, we would really like to hear from you.

The salary for this post is paid on the Sixth Form College Teacher's main scale, ranging from £24,098 to £39,329 per annum, depending on experience.

We welcome applications from both NQTs and experienced teachers from Sixth Form Colleges, Schools and FE Colleges.

Closing date: Monday 21st October 2019 (to arrive no later than 12 noon).
