Welcome from the CEO

Archway Learning Trust is a vibrant learning community where students are cared for, receive a high quality education and experience every opportunity to be successful.

School years are amongst the most important in our lives, helping us to develop the knowledge, skills and characteristics we need to succeed. At Archway Learning Trust, we are committed to giving every child the very best start that we can. We offer outstanding teaching and learning and exceptional personal support in an inclusive, faith based environment. I became a teacher because I believe in equal opportunities for everyone.

I also believe that every child has the right to an excellent education. Learning is at the heart of any good society and the opportunity to learn from teachers who are committed, enthusiastic and innovative is a right that all children should have.

Our mission is to help children to understand and believe in themselves, respect and care for others and to develop a wide understanding of faith, the world around them and their place within it. The determination of our youngsters to succeed, and the passion of our teachers to make a difference, makes me proud to be Chief Executive Officer of this diverse and dynamic family of academies.

Bluecoat Wollaton Academy

Bluecoat Wollaton Academy is an exciting and rewarding place to work. The Academy has a history of very successful exam results and prides itself on providing high quality education to the student population that we serve, no matter their background. All staff are highly valued as part of this.

Considerable time and energy is devoted to supporting our staff in becoming the best that they can be. The Academy recognises that each employee is as important as the other in contributing to the outstanding education we provide; employees are given the opportunity to attend and be part of extensive training programmes within their specialist area to develop the key skills to facilitate their career path. We believe in innovation, risk taking and welcome new ideas that people can bring to the Trust drawing from experiences in other workplaces.

Bluecoat Wollaton is a Church of England Academy and is proud of its Christian ethos, and respectful of all faiths. We work closely with the Diocese of Southwell and Nottingham but welcome staff and students irrespective of their background. At the heart of Wollaton is the belief that all students are unique and valued by God. Our mission statement sums up what we stand for: 'Believe; in yourself, in others, in God'

In addition to the 'Outstanding' grading at the last SIAMS (Church of England) inspection, in May 2018 the school was also judged as 'Outstanding' by Ofsted in all areas, testament to the hard work or staff and students who are passionate about the school and its 'family' approach.

We are truly inclusive and pride ourselves on the diversity of our students and employees that attend and work at our Academy. The Academy - and our wider Multi Academy Trust - are committed to ensuring staff are given full training to develop in their chosen career paths, dedicating significant time to this for staff each Thursday so that they can work in subject teams or within their own wider development that is personal to them, for national qualifications for instance.

We are truly inclusive and pride ourselves on the diversity of our students and employees that attend and work at our Academy. The Academy is committed to ensuring equal opportunities for all.

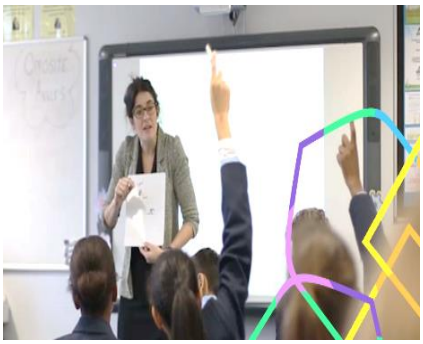

The Vacancy

We are looking to recruit a member of staff to join our supportive and successful English Department here at Wollaton. The team is made up of approximately 10 full time and part time staff, who each bring a mix of experience, expertise and enthusiasm to the team. Over the last few years we've secured ourselves as one of the top performing departments in the school. We are exceptionally proud that in our last GCSE cohort 91% of students earned a grade 4 or above, and the progress 8 score for English was 0.84. The ideal candidate will relish being part of a hard-working team and will help us to build on these excellent results.

A significant part of our team ethic is our mutual respect and sense of collective responsibility; we work as a team to ensure that the quality of learning and teaching are equally high across the department. We share resources, planning and strategies – we use the strengths of each member of the team to achieve our results. Our new team member will have a likeminded approach and be willing to work collaboratively to support students and staff.

CPD in our team is varied – we spend a significant proportion of our time improving our subject knowledge and developing our curriculum. Alongside this we work with other English staff from the Trust to develop our skills, as well as inviting in external providers (including the exam boards) to provide development on examination technique or new materials/content. We observe each-other's lessons and make the most of opportunities to work with trainees and school experience candidates. As a team we also pride ourselves on being forward thinking and developmental; we utilise a variety of resources and methods from Twitter and #teamenglish, and are always keen to trial new ideas if they will help to improve outcomes. We would welcome another member of the team who is keen to bring a new perspective to the table.

Whilst employed predominantly at our Bluecoat Wollaton Academy, there may be a requirement for the post holder to work across any of the sites within the Trust in accordance with the needs of the organisation.
