

About Cleveland's

Cleveland's Preparatory School is a highly regarded, independent co-educational day school located to the west of Bolton, Manchester, which has been providing excellence in education throughout its 50-year history.

We provide the ideal setting for creating a secure and happy atmosphere, which encourages each child to develop their gifts and unlock their potential. Our pupils benefit from a broad and varied curriculum and the quality of the teaching leads to excellent academic achievement with outstanding results for children.

“Parents are highly satisfied with the education and support provided for their children.”

We place great emphasis on providing a supportive and caring education environment and pastoral care is a key element of life at Cleveland's School. With small classes throughout, teachers are able to educate, encourage and nurture pupils on an individual level and help in the development of their knowledge, character and personality. The vibrant learning environment is one where children feel safe, happy and challenged to always achieve their best.

“The school provides excellent levels of pastoral care.”

The school is housed in a beautiful Victorian building, once the home of a Lancashire businessman, with picturesque woodland grounds. The school occupies three buildings. In addition to the main house, the nursery is situated in the old stables, with the school hall, science lab and other specialist classrooms located in a modern facility.

“Across the school, pupils show consideration for one another and respect for their teachers through good manners and excellent behaviour.”
