Urdu Community Language Tutor required – The Forest Academy (London Borough of Redbridge)

Required: Jan 2025 until May 2025

In response to the impact that the recent COVID-19 pandemic has had on the education of students nationwide, The Forest Academy is looking to expand the academic support network available to our students. We are seeking to appoint an inspiring and motivated Urdu tutor committed to expanding the learning experiences of our students and provide tuition for small groups of young people, helping them to achieve excellence.

If you are academically specialised in Urdu and interested in inspiring the next generation of students to study your discipline, then we're keen to hear from you.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Supporting students in 1:1 or small groups for subject-specific tuition sessions
- Supporting students to become independent, co-operative, and collaborative learners.
- Putting interventions in place to support Politics students with their specific needs

The part-time role is paid at £20 per hour and includes a free lunch.
