NOR 1870

Requires a

Post 16 Teacher of Sociology

for January 2018 to cover maternity leave

MPS

St Mary's College requires an enthusiastic and well qualified teacher of Sociology to cover maternity leave. The successful candidate will teach A level Sociology in this Catholic Comprehensive school. Candidates should be committed to achieving high standards and be able to demonstrate excellent practice in teaching and learning. The successful candidate will join a thriving Social Sciences department.

In our most recent OFSTED inspected St Mary's College was judged as follows:

"St Mary's College provides its students with an outstanding education. The outstanding care, guidance and support, good teaching and excellent curriculum combine to enable all students, regardless of their academic ability, to make outstanding progress. The Roman Catholic ethos permeates all aspects of the school. The school is, as one member of staff said, 'a team' working to ensure the best possible outcomes for students"

Diocesan Inspection 2015 judged the College to be outstanding in all areas.

A Level: Outstanding levels of progress and the region's leading provider.

St Mary's College is one of the very best schools in the country, being in the top 3% of schools and leading the DFE national performance tables for all similar schools.
