This position is suitable for NQT/ECTs.

Person Specification

The successful candidate will:

- be an inspiring, creative and passionate teacher whose practice is rooted in Quality First Teaching and will share our belief in the importance of supporting and developing the whole child.
- a belief in Inspired's approach to education where academic performance, sporting opportunities and creative arts are given equal status throughout the child's school experience.
- have experience of successfully teaching BTEC Business to Level 3 and will be able to demonstrate the value they have added to the outcomes of pupils under their care; have experience or be keen to also teach Economics or Business Studies to KS3, KS4 and KS5.
- be excited by the prospect of working for a school judged under the BSO framework to be "outstanding in all areas" and explain what they can bring to that environment.
- be committed to working collaboratively with pupils, parents and peers to achieve the best pupil outcomes possible.
- be able to adapt teaching methods to support and drive the progress of pupils whose first language may not be English.
- be a dedicated team player, with a "can-do" attitude who contributes positively to the general working environment and possesses an eagerness to contribute to the wider life of the school including enrichment and extracurricular activities.
- be a reflective practitioner with a keen interest in their own personal and professional development and an enthusiasm for participating in CPD and peer learning opportunities.
- be fluent in English and demonstrate highly articulate spoken, written & technical language.
- share our strong pastoral ethos and be able to demonstrate a commitment to pastoral care and the crucial role all staff play in developing the "whole" child.
- support the King's Group Digital Learning programme by being a Google Certified Educator, or be willing to become one within the first twelve months of employment.
