

Visiting Mandarin Teacher Information for Candidates

The School

Oakham is one of the UK's most forward thinking and innovative co-educational boarding and day schools. The school has 1060 pupils aged 10-18, half of them boarders, half day pupils. With equal numbers of boys and girls since 1989, the School offers a truly co-educational environment.

Whilst attracting pupils from all over the country and abroad, the School enjoys a close relationship with the town and the surrounding area. Three years ago Oakham School became one of the sponsors of an academic Sixth Form Academy, Harington School.

Oakham's strength lies in providing a spectacularly wide range of opportunities and activities which sit alongside an invigorating and challenging academic curriculum. In the Upper School, students choose between A-levels, Pre-U and BTEC qualifications, or the IB Diploma.

In recent years, the school has made it a priority to develop independent learning through a series of learning habits, which are increasingly embedded across the curriculum, both inside and outside the classroom. The 'Oakham learning journey' begins in the Lower School (situated on the Jerwoods Site), where boys and girls are admitted through the School's own entrance exam at 11 (there is also a small entry at 10). Pupils also enter the school at 13+ through the Common Entrance (CE) examination and we have a further major entry point at 16+.

Over many years, the school has not only been incredibly successful academically, but it is also recognised nationally for its outstanding achievements in sport, music, drama and the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme.

The School is at an incredibly exciting point in its history and has a very ambitious development plan for the next five years, including a new facility for the Performing Arts. Last September, the School opened a new classroom block for Humanities. This year, the School opened a new state-of-the-art Faculty of Social Sciences and has just commenced major redevelopment of the Sports Centre. Oakham School does not stand still.

The Department

The Modern Languages Faculty, one of the largest in the independent sector, currently comprises twenty full-time and two part-time teachers, together with a team of language assistants. A large number of our students succeed to IGCSE in two modern languages, some with Classics in addition. At IGCSE, the MFL pass-rate is at around 100%, with an average of close to 80% of students gaining A*/A. Our AS / A2 / IB Language B numbers are also very healthy (76 students completed a language IB or A2 last year) and most of our

Upper School students obtain high grades (72 of last year's cohort gained A*/A/B at A2 or 7/6/5 at IB), leading often to places at top universities. The recent ISI inspection highlighted how, at Oakham, 'the pupils' linguistic skills develop as they move through the school, to reach excellent levels in the Upper School.'

Housed in a modern building with a wide range of technical and technological support systems, the Languages Department is dynamic and innovative, making extensive use of Information Technology, providing numerous trips and exchanges abroad, and running Language Societies. Members of staff are encouraged to experiment and to share good practice.

We are looking to appoint a visiting Mandarin Teacher to provide weekly conversation classes with a small group of our junior pupils.

Public Examination Results

Academic performance across the school is excellent. In the IB Diploma in 2017, students achieved a mean score of 36.1 points, with over 90% of all Higher Level grades being 7, 6 or 5, and over a third scoring 38 or more points. At A-level, 12% of all examinations were graded A*, and 42% graded either A* to A. Overall, combining across all qualifications, results for the Upper School equate to around 47% A-level grades A* or A or equivalent.

At GCSE level, typically over 60% of all examinations are awarded A* or A; in 2017, over a fifth achieved straight A*s and As, with over a quarter achieving five A*s or better.

Wider Curriculum

Oakham's total curriculum is particularly rich. The school has a strong reputation in the creative and performing arts. The Music Department has nearly 600 music lessons per week for pupils learning an instrument and there is a wide variety of orchestras, ensembles and groups, and over 270 children sing in the school choirs. At any one time there are some 45 music scholars in the school. Theatrical productions are frequent in the school's three venues for drama, including the professionally equipped Queen Elizabeth Theatre which is also used by the town and touring professional companies. The Richard Bull Centre houses a diversity of artistic enterprises from design technology to sculpture, textiles to jewellery. Scholarships are available in Art, Drama and Design & Technology. A whole range of societies and activities flourish, from 'dissection club' to chess and from the CCF to conservation.

Sport is outstanding and there is a considerable breadth of sport available at Oakham. (the school was the 'Daily Telegraph/Aviva Senior Sports School of the Year in 2009/10) The main sports are rugby, hockey and cricket for boys and hockey, netball and tennis for girls. In addition to this, the school has a strong reputation in sailing, rifle shooting, golf and swimming. In most years there are over fifty boys and girls who represent their county or country in a variety of sports.

Pupils are encouraged to be part of the wider life of the community and to see life beyond the East Midlands. This happens in a number of ways, through community service, through trips abroad, but most effectively through the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme. Around 250 pupils participate in D of E activities every year and the school has a strong track record of success having achieved well over 5000 awards since first offering the scheme in 1960.

The richness and range of this activity is achieved within a full boarding environment operating seven days a week, with the term punctuated by weekend Leave Outs and Exeats (half term holidays). Term time can be intense, but rewarding: holidays are long. Members of staff are expected to involve themselves fully in the life of the school, helping with games and other activities outside the classroom. Special skills are welcomed but what matters most is a willingness to give time and energy generously.

The pastoral side of the school is well developed. All our pupils are members of one of the 16 houses, each with its own Housemaster or Housemistress, and every pupil has his or her own tutor. Tutors are responsible for a group of about a dozen pupils. All members of staff (including the Senior Leadership Team) have a specific pastoral role at Oakham.

Oakham is a Church of England foundation with an Anglican chaplain and a chapel which is in use every day. The school warmly welcomes those of other denominations. No-one is excluded from appointment on religious grounds but anyone intolerant of Christianity is unlikely to feel comfortable in the Oakham community.

Inspection Reports

Oakham School has recently undergone a very successful ISI Inspection (September 2013). The inspection reports can be viewed here.
