Dear Applicant

Teacher of Geography - Permanent

Thank you for requesting details for the post of Geography teacher at Ludlow School. If successful, you would be joining a school and a Faculty that is about to move to the next level in terms of performance. You will be expected to play a major part in the continuing improvement that will follow. Without doubt, this post is vital to the success of our students.

The successful candidate will be required to teach in a strongly performing Humanities Faculty, currently consisting of six teachers. Details of the Humanities curriculum can be found on the school's website. The GCSE teaching follows the WJEC Eduqas GCSE in Geography B. You will also be expected to teach Humanities subjects in Years 7 and 8, which includes History and Religious Education, alongside Geography. The Faculty is aspirational, and, while standards are vital, you will be expected to have an open and imaginative approach to pedagogy, and a determination to influence positive change.

Alongside a comprehensive induction programme, we are committed to continuing professional development, and are able to offer leadership development to the outstanding candidate.

If you have any questions regarding this post that you wish to raise before applying for this position, please do not hesitate to contact the Head of Humanities, Graeme Sampson. We are offering two opportunities to visit the school: a morning visit at 9.30am on Wednesday 12th February, and from 4pm that evening.

I look forward to meeting you, should you decide to take up this exciting opportunity to make a real difference to a school and community. We look forward to welcoming a practitioner with vision, enthusiasm, intellect and integrity.

Yours sincerely

Mrs P Hearle
Headteacher
