

PERSONAL PROGRESS TUTOR

Our team of Personal Progress Tutors support the academic success of groups of students by providing personal support through: regular support and guidance, monitoring, tracking and target setting, mentoring and coaching, developing the employability skills of our students. As a Personal Progress Tutor, you will be expected to deliver high quality pastoral support to a caseload of tutees, all aged 16-19, studying on a range of courses.

If successful, you would play a vital role in the College, which was graded as 'outstanding' in all categories by Ofsted in 2017. We excel in providing a broad, inclusive and high-quality education to all of our learners, which has resulted in some of the highest levels of progression to Higher Education in the sector. In 2021, Joseph Chamberlain College achieved A level pass rates of 100%, which were the best results in the history of the College.

We were featured in the 2019 Parliamentary Review for best practice in further education for the second time and were awarded the Teachers' Development Trust (TDT) for our comprehensive package of innovative and high impact professional development.

The College is situated within easy reach of Birmingham City Centre in a state-of-the-art building with superbly equipped classrooms and outstanding facilities.

If you are aspirational for all young people and want to play a part in shaping their futures, we would really like to hear from you.

Hours of work will be full-time, term-time only, with an additional 5 days.

The salary for this post is on the Colleges' Support staff pay scale, point 9, which equates to £21,509 per annum, FTE. This will be adjusted for term time only working plus five additional days.

Closing date: Monday 19th September 2022 (to arrive no later than 12 noon)
