

Oswestry School

Founded 1407

'We learn not for school but for life'

Oswestry School is an independent, co-educational day & boarding school, with a 11-18 senior school of c.350 pupils and a 4-11 junior school (Bellan House) of c.120 pupils. The strong ethos of the school is reflected in its fabulous pastoral care and sense of community. The School recently underwent inspection, with an excellent report. As well as providing a fantastic learning and living environment for young people, Oswestry School offers an enjoyable, challenging and rewarding working environment.

Teacher of economics and business

Applications are sought for a full-time and experienced teacher of economics to join our dynamic business faculty in September 2019. In the lower school (year 7 and 8) our pupils follow an in-house enterprise curriculum developing business skills but also teamwork, resilience and presentation skills. At GCSE business is a popular option and at A-level, both business and economics see high numbers of pupils. The ability to teach up to A-level business and economics is essential.

For an informal discussion regarding the post, please contact Mrs Linda Stephens, Head of Business, on 01691 655711 or email at ljs@oswestryschool.org.uk.

Other responsibilities could be considered in combination with this role: Housemaster/mistress, Head of Section, and Assistant Head (co-curriculum). Please see the TES website for details.

Generous fee discounts for staff children, as well as a medical support package and use of facilities, help emphasise that Oswestry School is a community which cares for its employees.

Closing dates for the above position: Thursday 24 April 2019 at noon

Provisional interview dates for the above position: Friday 3 May, Monday 6 May or Wednesday 8 May 2019

The school reserves the right to offer the post at any stage in the appointment process or not to offer the post.
