Newly Qualified Teachers

Welcome

The Howard Academy Trust aims to create a close knit family of Good and Outstanding schools through partnership, challenge, accountability and support within a cooperative framework.

We are an innovative and creative Trust, responding to the ever-changing needs of our students and the demands from higher education and employers. We recognise and emphasise the importance of aspiration, energy and ambition.

I believe that it is our moral compass to ensure that all young people receive at least a good education and we ensure that all our academies strive for excellence when delivering high quality teaching and learning.

Paul Morris
Chief Executive
The Howard Academy Trust

Thank you for your interest in working at The Howard School. As a growing school at all Key Stages I am looking to recruit talented individuals who share our vision of providing a first-class education to all our students. You will show the drive, tenacity and ability to realise this ambition, and demonstrate a commitment to your own education and to yours and others' professional development.

We take the development of all our staff seriously, whatever period of time they have been teaching for. As an NQT, you will benefit from mentor support both in your department and from elsewhere in the school; a reduced timetable in the first year; your own classroom and a bespoke training programme that meets your needs as an individual. In further years, you will have the opportunity to access further study in the form of Masters programmes and/or National College training programmes, plus tailored career stage development in school.

We also recognise that those who work hard should be rewarded, so we offer a retention incentive that is available when you successfully complete your NQT year, from £1000 up to £5000 depending on your agreed length of service. In addition we offer the opportunity to start employment this June, so you are inducted swiftly into the life of the school and get paid over the summer period.

As a school, our local and national reputation where our outcomes challenge the stereotypical view of underachievement in young men continues to grow, as does the perception that we hold to traditional values in standards of behaviour and uniform. We are an innovative and creative school, responding to the ever-changing needs of our students and the demands from higher education and employers. We have implemented a number of exciting changes in recent years to support our drive towards excellence.

I am determined to ensure The Howard is the best school in Medway and beyond in which to teach, work and develop. Our success has been built on the commitment, professionalism and aspirations of our staff. It is a place where people want to work as there are opportunities for progression. I hope my resolve to take the school to the next level is evident and, while I recognise that this is by no means easy, that this is the very least we should be doing for our community. The successful candidate will be someone who is genuinely up for the challenge. In return, we can promise an investment in you and your future, offering a competitive remuneration package, providing first class professional development and career opportunities.

I look forward to meeting you, and would strongly encourage you to visit the school.

History of The Howard School

The Howard School was established in 1975 by amalgamating Rainham Boys Secondary School and Gillingham Boys Grammar School to form a bi-lateral school. A bi-lateral school is one where admission to the grammar school section can be by 11 plus selection and admission to the high school section is non-selective.

The school was named after Dorothy Howard who played a major part in the local community.

Since opening there have been six headteachers:

- John Hicks: 1975 to 1987
- Alan Jarrett: 1987 to 1997
- Maurice Barry: 1997 to 2001
- David Smith: 2002 to 2007
- The Honourable Paul Morris: 2007 to 2015
- Terry Millar: 2016 to present

The Howard School became a Grant Maintained School in 1994 when we left the control of Kent County Council. Following a change of Central Government, we became a Foundation School in 1998. Although a Foundation School we worked very closely with the local authority. The school became a Specialist Sports College with ICT as the second strand in 2007. In October 2014, the school became an Academy and the core of The Howard Academy Trust.

We are a high achieving successful 11 to 18 school.

Since 2008, The Howard School has been and remains one of the highest achieving non-selective schools in Medway, Kent and the South-East of England. We believe The Howard School is one of the highest achieving boys' non-selective schools in the country.
