

King Henry VIII College is a British international boarding and day school located near Kuala Lumpur, the capital of Malaysia. The school was opened in 2018 and has steadily grown to 500 students. The College follows the UK national curriculum and prepares students for IGCSE and A Levels. KH8 is closely linked with Christ College, Brecon, where many of its founding staff originated.

King Henry VIII College's philosophy is based on the premise of a holistic education. Traditional values underpin a caring environment and exciting academic curriculum. These opportunities help to develop attributes such as innovative thinking, respect, resilience, responsibility, engagement, inquiry, critical thinking and creativity are all important in the KH8 community.

We are currently looking for enthusiastic and caring full-time staff, who are passionate about working with young people.
