- make effective use of assessment data on pupils' attainment and progress in planning future lessons;
- plan opportunities to contribute to pupils' personal, spiritual, moral, social and cultural development;
- ensure coverage of the relevant examination syllabuses and National Curriculum programmes of study, where this is applicable.

TEACHING AND CLASS MANAGEMENT

The teacher will:

- ensure effective teaching of whole classes, and of groups and individuals within the whole class setting, so that teaching objectives are met, and best use is made of available teaching time;
- monitor and intervene to ensure sound learning and discipline;
- establish and maintain a purposeful working atmosphere;
- set high expectations for pupils' behaviour; establishing and maintaining a good standard of discipline through well-focused teaching and through positive and productive relationships;
- establish a safe environment which supports learning and in which pupils feel secure and confident;
- use teaching methods which sustain the momentum of pupils' work and keep all pupils engaged;
- be familiar with the Code of Practice on the identification and assessment of special educational needs and, as part of their responsibilities under the Code, implement and keep records on individual education plans (IEPs) and Action Plus;
- ensure that pupils acquire and consolidate knowledge, skills and understanding in the subject;
- evaluate their own teaching critically and use this to improve their effectiveness;

ASSESSMENT, RECORDING AND REPORTING

The teacher will:

- assess how well learning objectives have been achieved and use this data to target improvement in specific aspects of teaching;
- mark and monitor pupils' assigned classwork and homework, providing constructive oral and written feedback, and setting targets for pupils' progress;
- assess and record each pupil's progress systematically, by focused observation, questioning, testing and marking, and use these records to:
 - monitor strengths and weaknesses and use the information gained as a basis for purposeful intervention in pupils' learning;
 - check that pupils have understood and completed the work set;
 - inform planning;
 - check that pupils continue to make demonstrable progress in their acquisition of the knowledge, skills and understanding of the subject;

- be familiar with the statutory assessment and reporting requirements and know how to prepare and present informative reports to parents;
- understand the expected demands on pupils in relation to courses in KS3, KS4 and KS5 as applicable;
- understand and know how national, local, comparative and school data, including National Curriculum test data, can be used to set clear targets for pupils' achievement.

KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE

The teacher will:

- have a working knowledge and understanding of teachers' professional duties as set out in the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document;
- have established, during work in schools, effective working relationships with professional colleagues including, where applicable, support staff;
- set a good example to the pupils they teach, through their presentation and their personal and professional conduct;
- be committed to ensuring that every pupil is given the opportunity to achieve their potential;
- understand the need to take responsibility for their own professional development and to keep up to date with research and developments in pedagogy and in the subjects they teach;
- understand their professional responsibilities in relation to school policies and practices, including those concerned with pastoral and personal safety matters, including bullying;
- recognise that learning takes place inside and outside the school context, and understand the need to liaise effectively with parents and other carers and with agencies with responsibility for pupils' education and welfare;
- be aware of the role and purpose of school governing bodies.

The teacher will undertake any such other duties as may reasonably be required by the Headteacher.
