Train to become a Languages Teacher with St Bede's College

Full time 1 year from August 2025 to June 2026

Passionate about languages and eager to inspire the next generation? Join our unique teacher training programme. We are recruiting passionate linguists to work towards their PGCE qualification and Qualified Teacher Status (QTS). Through our programme you will gain the skills, knowledge and practical training needed for a successful career in language education.

St Bede's College is the lead school for the Manchester Hub of the National Modern Languages SCITT, the only national teacher training provider specialising in modern foreign languages in the UK offering a distinct blend of academic and hands-on training, this unique experience sets us apart from other routes into teaching.

We are looking for candidates who have the potential to be an outstanding teacher. You will need a good honours degree or a recognised equivalent qualification together with a high level of fluency in at least one modern language.

With our programme, aspiring teachers can train to teach not only French, German and Spanish but also Arabic*, Italian*, Japanese*, Mandarin* and Russian*.

Subject to eligibility, successful applicants may be able to access a tax-free bursary of £26,000, or a scholarship of £28,000 (through the British Council) as well as a tuition fee and maintenance loan to help fund teacher training.

Why train with us?

- Tailored training focused on modern languages teacher training.
- A training programme that offers a combination of theory and hands-on classroom experience through school placements.
- Opportunity to teach in an independent and a state school. The Manchester Hub works with a range of schools in the area and you will be placed in two of our partner schools.
- You will be part of a cohort of trainees, providing you with friendship and support.
- Supportive network of experienced educators.
- From your first enquiry through to your first teaching role, we provide personalised support every step of the way.

If you are a graduate with a good honours degree in languages looking for a change in career, are graduating this year, have acquired a high level of language skills through your career or travels, or are a native speaker with a good degree, our programme could be the first step to kickstart your rewarding teaching career.
