Letter from the Head of School

Dear Candidate

Thank you for expressing an interest in a vacancy here at Meden School, on behalf of the whole community I extend you a very warm welcome.

As Head of School my priorities are: excellent examination outcomes, impeccable behaviour, great teaching and the widest possible range of extra-curricular experiences for all students. With a clear focus and lots of hard work, these things are all achievable and will deliver what I think most parents want – happy children who leave school well-equipped to cope with the world outside and with a range of options open to them.

There has never been a more exciting time to be a part of Meden staff. We are currently setting out a new vision and mission for the school as we aim to move from Good to Outstanding. The educational landscape is changing beyond recognition and this provides us with new challenges. However, these challenges can be met, and staff and students alike can thrive if we hold at the core of our work the belief that every child can succeed. Everything we do is in service of the children who have trusted their future's to us. This is a big responsibility and one that I know we all take very seriously. I am absolutely certain that standards at Meden can be driven ever higher through high expectations, excellent teaching and a pastoral system that provides our students with the support and challenge they need.

I want all staff to enjoy coming to work, to feel fulfilled, challenged as a professional and supported as a member of staff. Only in these conditions can any of us thrive. Our investment in staff is outstanding. Whatever the post, there is a clear professional development route map and we actively encourage leadership and risk taking at all levels.

I look forward to welcoming you into our school community.

- Tracking and Intervention
