Headteacher - Darren Guttidge

EYFS Class Teacher

Edward Wilson Primary school is a culturally rich community in North Paddington, set within attractive grounds and close to mainline and tube stations. We are a popular and forward thinking inclusive mainstream school – we are the only primary school in central London with a Specialist Resource Base for children with a Visual Impairment, and in March 2024 we opened our second SRP for children with ASD.

We can offer you:

- a supportive working culture
- a stable and dedicated team of Early Years practitioners
- professional development opportunities to help you realise your potential

The successful candidate will:

- be motivated to work as part of a team in a multicultural school
- be reflective, engaging and a team player
- have aspirations of becoming a truly excellent teacher

Visits are warmly welcomed and encouraged by arrangement through Darren Guttridge, headteacher.

There is no closing date for this position. The school will interview suitable candidates as soon as applications are made.

Edward Wilson Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. An Enhanced DBS is required for the successful applicant.
