Dear prospective applicant,

Thank you for taking the time to read the information regarding our current vacancy. We hope that you find the information you are looking for and that you develop an understanding of the atmosphere, vision, ethos and aims of Arden.

Arden is an oversubscribed 11-18 high performing school with 1800 students. As part of Arden Multi Academy Trust, with a strong track record of staff development, we consider ourselves to be an employer who can offer opportunities for any future employee.

We consider ourselves to have a unique atmosphere and sense of family. Our students are at the heart of all we do. We work hard to create and make positive relationships where students value and respect the hard work and expertise of our fantastic team of teachers and associate staff. We are proud of our students and believe wholeheartedly in education in the widest sense of the word. Our students' personal growth is developed through our Arden values of aspiration, resilience and belonging. We believe that by fully engaging in all that Arden has to offer and embracing these values, our students will become successful citizens of the future. They are our ambassadors and their achievements are our success. We are fortunate to have dedicated, highly skilled employees who work tirelessly to gain the best from our learners.

Additional information for the vacancy includes a person specification, job description and general details of the school. The completed application form and supporting question outlining the reasons why you wish to work at Arden, what you could bring to the post and the experience and attributes that prepare you to take on the advertised role should be submitted to the school by the deadline.

Children of staff who are permanently employed at Arden are eligible for a 'staff' priority for Arden main school and Sixth Form admissions (please see Admissions on our school website for full details and eligibility criteria).

Arden Academy Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all its staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We welcome applications regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, sexuality or religion. The successful applicant will be required to undertake an Enhanced DBS Disclosure and, in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education, will be subject to a social media online search.

Thank you for your interest in this post. We look forward to hearing from you should you decide you have something to offer our outstanding learning community.

Yours faithfully,

Mr D Warwood
Associate Headteacher
