

LOCHINVER
HOUSE

Lochinver House School's Aims

The mission of Lochinver House Preparatory School is to inspire pupils through high quality teaching and learning, in partnership with their parents. There is a particular emphasis on spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, and to create a safe, happy community that is conducive to learning in its broadest sense.

Lochinver House aims to:

- ★ Inspire pupils through an education of breadth and depth
- ★ Empower pupils to become independent thinkers
- ★ Support each pupil's development through effective partnership between home and school
- ★ Challenge each pupil to try his best and to persevere
- ★ Encourage pupils to be curious, ambitious and not to fear failure
- ★ Foster wisdom, moral courage, care for others and a spirit of service
- ★ Share the value of a spiritual life, through the School's Christian tradition and by promoting mutual respect and tolerance with different faiths and beliefs
- ★ Develop well-mannered pupils, at ease with themselves and confident with others.

Core values:

- ★ Kindness
- ★ Honesty
- ★ Respect

Lochinver House has a Christian tradition where care and respect are shown to everyone. As a School, we have an important role in promoting community cohesion, respect for difference and individual rights. We actively promote British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance for those with different faiths and beliefs.
