Ethos

A student told us ...

*'This isn't just about Years 7
to 13, Beaumont will be with us forever'*

A parent told us ...

'Beaumont is the reason we moved house - it is "our" school - the school of the local community'

A former student told us ...

'The vast opportunities on offer meant that we could explore what we enjoyed'

A student told us ...

'Beaumont's ethos is to bring out the best in everyone'

A parent told us ...

'I can give Beaumont no higher praise than moving house in order to entrust my child's education to it'

A former student told us ...

'I never doubted that the staff at Beaumont had my best interests at heart'

A student told us ...

‘Beaumont’s ethos is powerful because it rests on a central tenet of inclusivity yet it manages to tailor the school experience to allow each individual to stand out’

A parent told us ...

'Beaumont staff are a strong, supportive community, committed to the school, each other and to looking for ways to improve the school'

A former student told us ...

'In class, individual thought and opinion were encouraged and nurtured; I could make my voice heard; I felt valued and noticed'

A student told us ...

‘Beaumont drives all to succeed in their field, without the arrogance or elitism that often comes with success’

A parent told us ...

'The school provides a happy and caring community my children have simply thrown themselves into'

A student told us ...

'We simply enjoy coming to school'

A parent told us ...

‘Parents feel this is a school fit for purpose; modern and up to date, reflecting the changes in modern society’

A student told us ...

‘Students have a strong respect for the school itself and this makes them want to succeed for the future’

A student told us ...

*‘If you are a sportsman, musician, actor or academic,
there is room for you to reach your potential; all are given their moment in the sun’*
