

What our staff say . . .

Having worked at the Misbourne for over four years, I have loved my time here and continue to do so. From the first day, all the staff have been so supportive, understanding and very friendly. It makes for a lovely atmosphere. My job is crazy-busy but I enjoy every minute of it.

Samina Jahbeen, Reprographics

The Misbourne has supported me through many stages of my career, when I started I was unqualified and unsure if teaching was the profession for me, now three years on I am fully qualified and have almost completed my NQT year. The staff and students make The Misbourne an exciting and enjoyable place to improve skills and develop as a teacher. Support and guidance is always available and colleagues are kind and encouraging. I feel very lucky to have been given the opportunities I have had at The Misbourne.

Alicia Balchin, English Teacher

The Misbourne is a truly inspiring place to work. Not only are the students fantastic and really interested in learning/producing the best work they possibly can but the staff are always willing to try new things and take a risk. I have worked at The Misbourne for four years now and can honestly say I have never worked in a place where the staff are so friendly and dedicated to improving the lives of the young people in the school. My career has thrived under the opportunities that I have been given and I cannot wait to see what the future holds for The Misbourne.

Clare Owen, Head of Year 7

From my Induction Day to my first day and still today I feel welcomed, supported and most definitely valued. This is a great school to work at with fantastic students and staff. I am proud to be a teacher at the Misbourne School.

Caroline Weller, English Teacher

Working at The Misbourne is all about working as a team, with each member supporting each other to ensure we are doing the 'why' of our jobs - to encourage and develop our students into independent and confident young people ready for their next steps. Exemplary staff training and mentoring offered at The Misbourne allows every curriculum area the opportunity to ensure that all students obtain excellent teaching; this is mirrored as solid progress throughout the school. Building strong relationships between parents, students and teachers is pivotal in the continued success of the school and is a key factor in its success and popularity.

Kerry Cato, Curriculum Leader Technology

What I enjoy the most about working at The Misbourne, is that you can see a constant strive for improvement. Whether this is in the physical shape of the new building, student's work or teaching and learning, The Misbourne is always moving forward. Improvement is what motivates me, and I am rewarded with plenty of it at The Misbourne.

Greg Ingram – Music Teacher

There is never a dull moment here at The Misbourne and no two days are the same. The working day just flies by and I enjoy my work immensely.
