Student Safeguarding: Self-Declaration and Disclosure Form

As this position involves working with children, candidates must disclose all previous convictions and cautions, regardless of whether they are spent or unspent.

Disclosure of an investigation or conviction will not necessarily debar you from employment, but non-disclosure may lead to any offer on employment being withdrawn or to the termination of employment.

You will also be required to provide a valid DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) certificate which will provide details of criminal convictions; this may also include a Barring List check depending on the nature of the role. All information will be treated as confidential and managed in accordance with Thailand Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA)

Have you ever been known to any previous school or other organisation as being a risk or potential risk to children?		YES / NO
If Yes, please provide further information here.
Have you been the subject of any disqualification, disciplinary investigation or sanction by any organisation due to concerns about your behaviour towards children?		YES / NO
