King's High School

A message from the Head Master

I am delighted that you are taking the time to find out more about joining the King's High community.

This brochure can only give you a glimpse of our wonderful school; however, I hope it conveys the exciting opportunities offered at King's.

As a leading school for girls, we take pride in offering a broad and well-rounded education. The girls here are characterised by their commitment to their studies, the enjoyment they take in pursuing their extracurricular interest to the full, and the important contributions they make to the local and wider community.

King's is an exceptionally dynamic and vibrant environment in which to work. Our expert staff show great commitment to the girls both in the classroom and in their wider endeavours, delighting in their many and varied successes.

I therefore very much hope that you will be inspired by what you discover about us and that you will wish to be a part of this exciting community; I look forward to receiving your application.

Richard Nicholson
Head Master

The School

Founded in 1879, King's High School provides independent, single sex, day education for approximately 650 girls aged 11 to 18. The school is renowned for its friendly and welcoming atmosphere, founded on a distinguished academic tradition tailored to individual girl's needs by a highly qualified and motivated staff. We pride ourselves on the outstanding academic and creative performance of our pupils.

We value friendship, involvement, intellect, creativity, spirit and maturity. Girls are encouraged to follow their interests and excel in subjects they enjoy. Our aim is for our girls to develop into happy, confident and compassionate young women with the ability to reason, analyse, learn independently and exercise good judgement.

The school has remained on the same town site in the heart of Warwick for 140 years. The main building, Landor House, is of historical interest. It is the birthplace of the writer Walter Savage Landor and remained in his family for 80 years before being given to the school in the late 19th Century.

Recent enhancements to our school site include: the Sixth Form Centre and St Mary's Building (opened by Dame Judi Dench in 2006); the Creative Arts Centre (opened by Old Girl Catherine Bott in 2009) and the Dining Room (opened by Miss Prue Leith in 2011). In September 2012, we were pleased to begin using our newly refurbished food technology facilities and a new, additional, science laboratory. Most recently we have been extremely pleased to open our newly renovated library, which includes an Innovation Centre.

In September 2016, the Governors announced 'Project One Campus', a £30 million development which will see King's High relocated to the Myton Road campus joining Warwick School and Warwick Prep School on the same site. It is planned that the new main school building along with the shared Sixth Form Centre will be completed for September 2019, with the remainder of the campus ready for September 2019. The Foundation

King's High School and sister school Warwick Prep work as one school under a single leadership structure. Together with Warwick School we form the Warwick Independent Schools Foundation.

The Role

We are seeking to appoint an outstanding and innovative Religious Studies teacher to join an ambitious and exciting department in our thriving school.

The successful candidate will be able to teach Religious Studies to a high standard at least to KS3 and, ideally, to GCSE or above, inspiring a genuine interest in the subject, and contributing with enthusiasm to the busy co-curricular life of the department and school. The ability to teach an additional subject may be an advantage.

This is an excellent opportunity for an innovative practitioner to develop their skills in a successful department. It is a particularly exciting time to be joining the school as we look ahead to the state of the art facilities at Project One Campus.

The role is part time and permanent for September 2019. The successful candidate is likely to teach 4 or 5 fifty minute lessons each week.

The department consists of one full time and one-part time specialist who work collaboratively to ensure the very highest standards of teaching and learning.

Job Description

Reporting to Head of Religious Studies and Philosophy the post holder is required:

- To plan, prepare and teach lessons as required by the department.
- To set homework and mark written work regularly and ensure that the correct procedures are followed.
- To set, supervise and mark school examinations and course work for public examinations.
- To assess, record and report on the development, progress and attainment of pupils and to communicate this information to parents via written reports and Parents' Evenings.
- To review methods of teaching and programmes of work and participate in arrangements for further training and professional development.
- To contribute to departmental extra-curricular activities.
- To keep records of attendance at lessons as required.
- To encourage as much use as possible of the school libraries and other resources.
- To invigilate and undertake administration associated with public examinations.
- To maintain good order and discipline among pupils and safeguard their health and safety.
- To attend Departmental, Year, Staff, Parents' and Inset meetings.
- To attend assemblies.
- To provide cover for absent staff, especially within the department, and to carry out other duties as required.
- To adhere to school policy on safeguarding and update training as required.
- To ensure the safeguarding and well-being of children and young people at the school in accordance with school policies.
