Required for 19th April 2022

Assistant Head Teacher L15-19 (Inner London)

Situated in the heart of East Ham Plashet is an outstanding comprehensive 11 - 16 girls' school of 1,500 students. Our Progress 8 score for 2019 (the last year for which there is national comparative data) was +0.66 and places us in the top 5% of schools nationally.

We are seeking to appoint an experienced and inspiring colleague who is committed to excellence. This person needs to be a professional who has a love of learning to contribute to the further success of our 'outstanding' school prior to moving onto Deputy Headship and ultimately Headship. Applications are invited from suitably qualified and experienced leaders with resilience, drive, excellent communication, leadership and interpersonal skills. The successful candidate will embrace our ethos of inclusivity and high expectations.

The successful applicant will have:

- Expert subject knowledge and pedagogy.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- An unerring commitment to comprehensive education.
- The ability to deliver excellent student outcomes.
- A strong commitment to their personal and professional development as a leader.
- The commitment to make a positive contribution to the school's distinctive ethos.

The Assistant Head Teacher will have a portfolio covering a wide range of responsibilities across the school. The detailed responsibilities of the post holder will be negotiated following the appointment of the most suitable candidate to this role.

Plashet School offers:

- A high achieving, over-subscribed girl's school producing excellent rates of student progression and examination results.
- An outstanding and highly inclusive learning environment rated thus by Ofsted since 1999.
- A stimulating and challenging learning environment where we as staff are as active in, and committed to, learning as our students.
- A professional environment that is focused on maintaining staff wellbeing supported by manageable teaching contact time, meeting cycles and assessment, recording and reporting expectations.
- The opportunity to work in a highly regarded school and as part of a strong leadership team.
- Tailored professional development and training.

Plashet School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be required to undertake an Enhanced Disclosure via the DBS.

We want to reassure applicants that effective measures will be implemented to ensure their health and wellbeing are protected during the recruitment process.
