Position
Summary

Shrewsbury International School Bangkok City Campus launched a new bilingual pathway option for students which successfully opened in August 2025. Next academic year we will expand further and are currently looking for passionate teachers to join the growing team for this pathway for August 2026.

The Chinese Class Teacher will work in close partnership with an English Class Teacher, co-planning and co-teaching in an immersive bilingual environment. Together, the teaching team is responsible for homeroom duties and for delivering a curriculum based on the UK National Curriculum (Early Years Foundation Stage or Key Stage 1), with integrated bilingual approaches. The Chinese Teacher will provide a strong foundation in Chinese literacy and language development, while working collaboratively to ensure children receive a high standard of bilingual learning experience.

All classes have two full-time Teaching Assistants. A range of subject specialist lessons are taught which further enhance the provision (Thai, PE, Swimming, Music, Library time).

A vibrant after-school activity programme, 'You Time!' is contributed by all Class Teachers. Shrewsbury International School City campus is well resourced, thriving and successful with a range of ICT resources available to aid learning. Our students are diligent, motivated and enthusiastic. We benefit from close communication and positive relationships with our parent body.
