Responsibility, Excellence

The Cherwell School are looking to recruit exam invigilators to join their examinations team. You do not need to have previous experience in this role, however you should have good organisational skills and be reliable/punctual. We are looking for colleagues who enjoy working with young people, have a flexible and positive approach and will enjoy working as part of a team.

Hours will be worked on a casual basis during exam periods throughout the academic year. We ask our invigilators to be committed to 3 days per week (or more) during the peak summer season; middle of May until the end of June. There is flexibility during the rest of the year to suit each individual.

To apply and for further information, visit the website: <https://www.tes.com/jobs/employer/the-cherwell-school-1030426>

Please feel free to contact Kirsty Wilson, Examinations Officer, on 01865 558719 for an informal discussion about the role.

The closing date for applications is Monday 21st January 2019 at 12.00pm

The Cherwell School and the River Learning Trust are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children and preventing extremism; all staff are expected to share this commitment. The successful candidate will be subject to an enhanced DBS check. The Cherwell School is an equal opportunities employer and we welcome applications from a range of ethnic backgrounds to represent diversity in line with our school community.
