The Trustees are seeking to appoint, as soon as possible, a Year Manager for Sedgefield Community College.

Would you like to progress your career in a school judged by OFSTED as ‘outstanding’, a school where both student achievement and attitudes to learning are amongst the best in the entire North East and Cumbria region? Would you also like to work in a fantastic, recently built school, set in one of County Durham’s most scenic areas? If the answer to each of these questions is ‘yes’ then Sedgefield Community College could be right for you.

The Year Manager is expected to manage aspects of student development, guidance and well-being including liaising with staff, students, parents and other external agencies. In addition, the post holder would be expected to closely monitor the progress of all students within the year group and be proactive in promoting the positive ethos of the college.

The successful applicant will be an energetic professional who is committed to ensuring all young people are given the opportunity to achieve in a safe, caring and stimulating environment.

Laidlaw Schools Trust is a growing multi academy trust in the North East of England, serving children and families in Sedgefield, the west of Newcastle and in Pennywell, Sunderland. We pride ourselves in being a progressive, inclusive trust that supports every child to develop their talents whatever they may be and to reach their academic potential. It is important that as a learning organisation we adapt and change to the needs of our pupils. We take care to value and develop all colleagues to make sure they can do their very best for children across the Trust’s schools. Our Academies also enjoy strong support from an experienced LST central team, based in Newcastle upon Tyne.
