The ENGLISH FACULTY

English is one of ten faculties within the School (English, Mathematics, Science, Applied/Vocational Learning, Art/Design & Technology, Humanities, Learning Support, Communications and PE & Performing Arts) and currently has 15 members of staff within it. The Faculty is managed by a Curriculum Leader assisted by a Deputy and an Assistant.

The Faculty currently teaches 'A' level AQA English Literature, 'A' level AQA English Language, BTEC Media and AQA GCSE English and English Literature.

The English Department has an excellent record of external examination successes at both 'A' level and GCSE. In 2020, A level English Language students achieved 100% A*-C and A level English Literature students achieved 100% A*-C. BTEC Media students achieved an average grade of Distinction.

The English Faculty is very much a team who work together to plan collaboratively and share resources. We regularly update our schemes of work at Key Stage 3 and endeavour to teach lessons that ensure our students and challenged and exposed to a wide range of texts.

All English classrooms have an Interactive whiteboard and a PC. We also have a visualiser in every English classroom so that we can share good work with our students.

Extra-curricular activities include frequent theatre and lecture visits, entry into public speaking and debating competitions and visits by poets, authors and TIE theatre companies. The Film Club has had noteworthy competition success, being invited to a London Premiere as a reward.

Along with all schools across the country, the English Faculty is responding to exciting curriculum review at KS3 & KS4. However, our collaborative approach means that we work together to ensure the best provision for our students.

At Alsager School new staff will be well supported and encouraged to develop their own skills to provide the best possible learning experience for our pupils. As a member of an innovative department, you will also be encouraged to gain a wide range of experience to support your professional development.

THE REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act allows for a person who has been convicted of a criminal offence involving a sentence of not more than 2½ years imprisonment and who has since lived trouble free for a specified period of time (related to the severity of the offence) to be treated as if the offence, conviction or sentence had never occurred. This is known as a spent conviction.*

This job is one of those to which the provisions of the above Act in relation to spent convictions*, do not apply. Applicants must therefore disclose whether they have any previous convictions*, whether or not they are spent.

Should an applicant have a criminal conviction*, this will be discussed in confidence at interview. However only convictions* that are relevant to the job in question will be taken into account. Failure to disclose any conviction could lead to an application being rejected, or, if appointed, may lead later to dismissal.

Certain spent convictions* are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account by a recruitment manager. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these convictions* can be found at the following link:
http://www.legislation.gov.uk/uksi/2013/1198/pdfs/uksi_20131198_en.pdf
*including cautions, reprimands or warnings.

People who have convictions will be treated fairly and given every opportunity to establish their suitability for the job, all applicants will be considered on merit and ability.

Any information that you give will be kept in strict confidence and will be used only in respect of your application for the job.

DISCLOSURE & BARRING SERVICE (DBS)

Successful applicants will be asked to apply for an Enhanced Criminal Record Check (Disclosure) from the Disclosure and Barring service.

A copy of the Disclosure and Barring Service Code of Practice is available on request.

Further information about the Disclosure scheme can be found at https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/disclosure-and-barring-service

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN

Alsager School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
