About us

Callywith College is a post-16 College in Bodmin that opened in September 2017 and was rated Outstanding by Ofsted in January 2020.

The College was created in association with Ofsted Outstanding Truro and Penwith College to serve students aged 16–19 from North and East Cornwall. Callywith College received the go-ahead in February 2016, funded as a Free School. The College aimed to provide the outstanding Truro and Penwith College experience for young people in Bodmin and North and East Cornwall. In January 2020 Ofsted judged Callywith College outstanding in all categories and results data for 2019 confirms Callywith as one of the best colleges nationally.

Relationship to Truro and Penwith College

Callywith College shares the vision, aims and teaching qualities of Truro and Penwith College and provides comprehensive tertiary education of the same outstanding quality delivered at the Truro and Penwith campuses. Truro and Penwith College owns the Callywith College site and former senior staff from Truro and Penwith College lead Callywith College, implementing common systems and processes, ensuring the same high levels of quality.

Mission and Ethos

Our mission is simply to provide our students with the best opportunity to achieve their personal and educational goals to better their life chances.

We are looking for exceptional candidates with the vision, energy and determination to provide first class education and support by joining a college which highly values all of its staff in a culture of support, togetherness and high aspirations for all.

The Lecturer scale is divided into a number of bands:-

B	£28,197 - £29,238
C	£32,408 - £36,265
D	£38,017 - £41,870

The precise band on which the post will be offered will be finally determined at interview.

We ask that experienced candidates should include details of the results their students have obtained over the past two years. Candidates should also indicate if they are able to contribute to other aspects of the College's teaching programme. The selection criteria for short listing and at appointment will include consideration of qualifications, previous experience and achievements, ability to work with energy and commitment, ability to work as a member of a team, and ability to contribute to the future development of the College.
